

a place to stay

A FILM ABOUT SALISBURY GARDEN COURT

How does urban design affect community? Through the stories of past and current residents, historical and family photographs, and newsreel footage, this film tells some of the unique social history of Salisbury Garden Court (Wadestown, Wellington), and presents a case study of the various connections between architecture and people.

the 35 minute documentary will be screening at:

Paramount Cinema (Courtenay Place)

SAT 11 JULY 11.30AM - GOLD COIN ENTRY